The railroads are an interesting feature of the business prospects of Reno. There are here the termini of two roads, the completion of either one of which would make Reno a competitive point, as much so as San Francisco. The N. & C. road is progressing northward; the renewing of work on the C. & C. road is again agitated. The C. & C. extends southward from Mound House to Keeler, three hundred miles. From Keeler either to Mohave on the Southern Pacific, or Waterman on the Atlantic Pacific, it is one hundred and ten miles, which would make the line of that road four hundred and ten miles. From Mound House to Reno it is forty-one miles. The distance then from Mohave or Waterman to Reno is four hundred and fifty-two miles. Now the distance from Waterman to San Francisco is same, or four hundred and fifty miles. Hence, as we have said, in the point of distance, Reno would be as well located as a competitive point as the metropolis of the Coast. This would make a new avenue for an exchange of products between Southern California and Nevada. It would place Reno in direct connection with Los Angeles, Riverside, San Diego and all of that southern country, which is everywhere regarded as the garden of America. There would be a market for our horses, cattle, hay and potatoes. In return we would receive at San Francisco prices Southern California's fruits and other products. The opening of this additional market also might induce capitalists to make use of our superior water power by erecting a pork packing establishment, a cannery to preserve beef and other meats, manufactories for making cheaply candles from our great supply of tallow, buckets from our sawdust, fruit and other boxes from our wood, and all kinds of clothing from our wool. In fact, there is no limit to the kinds and number of manufactories that might be started if we are brought within easy access of the populous sections of Southern, as well as Northern, California. Now, will the C. & C. road be extended? Secretary D. A. Bender strongly advocates its extension. Superintendent H. M. Yerington, until recently, has opposed it, but it is said that he now favors it. Having the endorsement of the Superintendent and Secretary, it is probable that D. O. Mills, who must furnish the capital, will be convinced of the necessity for its construction. Should the work of construction commence this Fall, as it is rumored it may, there will be a marked advance in the prices of real estate in and around Reno. With two railroads, one extending its line up into Northern California, and the other into Southern California, Nevada's metropolis will have such a boom as to surprise even the most sanguine of our capitalists.

The miners of Virginia have just forwarded $1,300 to the sufferers of the disaster in the coal mine at Nanimo, British Columbia. Giving to charity has become second nature to Comstock miners. It is said that at the Crown Point mine not a pay day for years has passed without a collection. Some of the miners give away, on an average, from five to ten dollars per month of their salary. In flush times the Sisters at a fair have raised as much as $10,000. A little over a year ago the miners presented $2,500 to Mrs. Delaney, whose husband had been killed on the streets of Virginia by a policeman. There is probably no other place of its size on the American continent where so much is done in the way of charities as on the Comstock, and no other people so self-sacrificing as the Comstock miners.

IRISH RESISTING EVICTION.

A Destructive Conflagration in Williamsburg.

[FROM DISPATCHES TO THE GAZETTE]

Another Destructive Blaze.

NEW YORK, May 11.
The immense sugar refinery of the Havemeyer Sugar Refining Company, in Williamsburg, near Green Point, burned at 3 o'clock this morning. The fire extended to the Devoe Oil Works, and destroyed everything, and next to the stable of the Union Cross Town Railroad Company, which was burned. Reeves & Perkins' lumber yard burned next. The refinery walls fell in. It is not known whether any lives are lost. Ten men of the night force are missing. The fire extended along Hunter's Point bridge, which connected Green Point with Long Island City, across Newton Creek. Shortly after 3 o'clock the entire reserve force was called out. The buildings of the Brooklyn Cooperage Company and Gleason's Glass Works were burning, and Lock's Iron Works were threatened. It is impossible to make the extent of the loss, but it will exceed $1,000,000.

The latest reports from Green Point state that the fire was confined to the Havemeyer sugar buildings. The loss will be about $300,000; fully insured. All but two men have been accounted for.

A Sensation in the Typographical Convention.

BUFFALO, June 11.
A sensation was developed in the Typographical Convention during the secret session yesterday afternoon, the particulars of which are slowly leaking out. It was learned last night that Treasurer Pascoe had tendered his resignation, but the reason for his action was kept a close secret. This morning, however, it was learned that a shortage had been discovered in Pascoe's accounts. The Finance Committee had been at work on his books for some time, and as soon as they were convinced of the shortage they reported to the convention what had transpired in the secret session. It is known only to the delegates themselves, but Pascoe had severed his connection with the Executive Department of the Union when the doors were reopened.

Application for a Writ of Habeas Corpus.

NEW YORK, June 11.
Counsel for the Inman Steamship Company applied to the United States District Court for a writ of habeas corpus in the case of 70 Irish emigrants, whose return to Ireland on the City of Chester to-morrow has been ordered by the Emigrant Commissioners. The argument will be heard Tuesday.

In Favor of Female Labor.

BUFFALO, June 11.
In the Typographical Union convention the first business this morning was a report of the Committee on Female Cheap Labor, recommending the organization of women and equal pay for equal work, which was adopted. The Committee on Constitution and By-laws reported unfavorably on abolishing the office of Chief Organizer, and favorably that the time of holding the next meeting be fixed as the second Monday in June, 1888, and also that the salary of Secretary and Treasurer be changed from $1,200 to $1,000. The report was agreed to.

Will Not Arbitrate.

CHICAGO, June 11.
The attempt of the Bricklayers' Union to arbitrate differences with their employers failed. The bosses this afternoon declined to arbitrate and the end of the lockout is apparently as far away as ever. The action of master masons, it is thought, will cause master carpenters to adhere to their nine-hour plan, and the result will be that thousands of idle men will be added to those already out of work.

Mrs. Cleveland's Movements.

OSWEGO, N. Y., June 11.
Mrs. Cleveland arrived here this evening accompanied by friends. Mrs. Cleveland will remain the guest of Miss Dingsford for two weeks, after which both ladies will attend the commencement exercises at Wells College, Aurora, N. Y.

The Apache Warriors.

RENO, ARIZONA, June 10.
Last night, at dark, Lieutenant John a party of eighteen Indians toward Rincon mountains. Johnson was only half an hour behind the Redskins, with fair prospects of coming up with them if they kept their course, but the Indians, with their usual sagacity, changed their course soon after dark and headed right across for the Catalina Mountains, throwing the soldiers off the track. At daylight this morning Johnson took up the trail, and this afternoon another fresh trail, which would indicate that there were about thirteen Indians in the party, was discovered going across the railroad track, five miles west of Benson, and pointing toward Rincon mountains. This corroborates the statement that there are about thirty Apaches on the war-path, as eighteen were seen near Pantano yesterday.

Nothing has been heard from Johnson to-day. When closely pursued these Indians will travel seventy miles per day, and they know every trail and spring in the country, so it can be seen how difficult it is for troops unaccustomed to the country to pursue them successfully. Great caution exists to know who is the leader of the renegades. They appear to have a perfect knowledge of the country, and are supposed to be some of Crook's scouts.

Commissioner Sparks on the Burlington & Missouri Railroad Lands.

WASHINGTON, June 11.
Land Commissioner Sparks has advised an attorney for a purchaser of lands in Nebraska that the Burlington and Missouri River Railway Company that no more patents can be issued to said company for lands north of the line of the road in that State for the reason that the company has already derived the benefit under a former administration of the Land Office for 200,000 acres more than it is entitled to. The Commissioner some time since recommended a suit to recover this excess.

The Slave Block in New York.

NEW YORK, June 11.
The houses of Sui Poi and Wo Keep, agents of Chinese importing houses, and who live at No. 4 and 4½ Mott street, were raided to-day by the police, and were taken, together with two Chinese girls aged about 10 years to the Tombs Police Court. It is alleged that the girls were bought in China and were held here as prisoners by Poi and Keep, who intended to hold them until they had reached a marriageable age, when they would sell them to the highest bidder.

The President in Washington.

WASHINGTON, June 11.
The President arrived in this city at 9 o'clock last night. A carriage was in waiting at the railroad yard, and he entered it and was driven to the White House. A few railroad officials and two or three friends of the President were the only persons present when he alighted from the train.

The President resumed his usual routine at the White House to-day and devoted the most of the day to a consideration of matters accumulating during his absence.

The Force in the Quartermaster General's Office to be Reduced.

WASHINGTON, May 11.
A number of dismissals will be made in the Quartermaster General's office in the War Department, beginning the next fiscal year, in accordance with the provisions of the Legislative Appropriation bill passed at the last session of Congress. These dismissals, Secretary Edgerton has decided, shall be determined by an examination, conducted under the new Civil Service rules governing promotions in the Executive Departments. The examinations, it is expected, will take place sometime next week.

Bricklayers in Sympathy With Striking Carpenters.

ST. PAUL, June 11.
Three hundred and fifty union bricklayers quit work to-day as an expression of sympathy with the striking carpenters. The bricklayers make no demand for themselves. A general mass meeting of all building trades will be held to-morrow night, when the question of a general strike of all building trade workers will be considered.

FOREIGN DISPATCHES

Terrible State of Affairs at Turkestan.

LONDON, June 11.
Further earthquake shocks have occurred in Turkestan. Kaskelenak, a settlement 25 miles west of Vernome, was visited by a severe shock and the settlement was destroyed. Shocks have also been felt in the town of Rikbeck. The wires are broken in many places. Shocks have been felt continuously since the ninth instant. Within a radius of 1,000 versts of Vernome many persons lost their lives. The exact number is unknown, but each day discovered newly discovered bodies.

Resisting Evictions.

DUBLIN, June 11.
The evictions at Bodyke were further carried out to-day. The first house visited by the evicting force was that of Timothy Collins, but as it was announced that a daughter of Collins lay dying inside, the work of eviction was abandoned. The evictors then proceeded to the house of Michael O'Callaghan, where they met with a terrible resistance. The bailiffs and police were deluged with scalding water and meal. Colonel Turner, who was in charge of the evicting party, implored Father Hannan, who was again in attendance, to endeavor to persuade the people to cease resistance, and thus prevent bloodshed. Father Hannan then entered the house and the inmates ceased their attack on the force, which entered and carried out the work of eviction. Five women, who had been extremely violent in their attacks, were arrested.

A Bull Used as an Engine of War.

LONDON, June 11.

Vitiated Blood

Scrofulous, Inherited and Contagious Humors Cured by CUTICURA.

THROUGH THE MEDIUM OF ONE OF your books received through Mr. Frank T. Way, Druggist, Apollo, Pa., I became acquainted with your CUTICURA REMEDIES, and take this opportunity to testify to you that their use has permanently cured me of one of the worst cases of blood poisoning, in connection with erysipelas, that I have ever seen, and this after having been pronounced incurable by some of the best physicians in our country. I take great pleasure in forwarding to you this testimonial, unsolicited as it is by you, in order that others suffering from similar maladies may be encouraged to give your CUTICURA REMEDIES a trial.

SCROFULOUS ULCERS.

James E. Richardson, Custom House, New Orleans, on oath says: "In 1870 Scrofulous ulcers broke out on my body until I was a mass of corruption. Everything known to the medical faculty was tried in vain. I became a mere wreck. At times I could not lift my hands to my head, could not turn in bed; was in constant pain, and looked upon life as a curse. No relief or cure in ten years. In 1880 I heard of the CUTICURA REMEDIES, used them and was perfectly cured."

Sworn to before U. S. Com. J. D. Crawford.

ONE OF THE WORST CASES.

We have been selling your CUTICURA REMEDIES for years, and have the first complaint yet to receive from a purchaser. One of the worst cases of Scrofulous ulcers I ever saw cured by the use of five bottles of CUTICURA REMEDIES. CUTICURA and CUTICURA SOAP. The Soap takes the "cake" here as a medical soap. TAYLOR & TAYLOR, Druggists, Frankfort, Kan.

SCROFULOUS, INHERITED, AND CONTAGIOUS HUMORS, WITH LOSS OF HAIR AND Eruptions of the Skin, are positively cured by CUTICURA and CUTICURA SOAP externally and CUTICURA RESOLVENT internally, when all other medicines fail. Send for Pamphlet.

STATE UNIVERSITY.

An Important Communication From ex-Regent Shaw.

Editor Gazette:—Unless the Regents of the State University avail themselves of the opportunity to buy ten additional acres for the University grounds, the State of Nevada will be the sufferer. Their predecessors saw the disadvantage of having a tract of only ten acres in area, and when they purchased the present site they caused Mr. Evans, the former owner, to enter into a bond to sell the State ten additional acres. The time of the bond expires on June 11. I am not aware that the present ex-officio Regents have deemed the matter of sufficient importance to stimulate them to action. When Hon. John Dorman was here a few weeks ago I called his attention to the subject.

I now again by leave, through your columns, call the attention of the people of Nevada to this matter.

To make the point clearer, I ask you to publish the following extract from the last biennial report of the Board of Regents:

PURCHASE OF SITE.

After several days' examination of the various sites offered, the Board accepted the offer of Newton J. Evans for the sale of ten acres of an elevated and commanding tract, contiguous to his farm, and north of and immediately adjacent to the town of Reno. The contract price was $125 an acre, including the right of way to conduct water from the Orr ditch to irrigate the grounds and supply the institution with water for drinking and other purposes. The deed from N. J. Evans and wife, dated June 11, 1885, will be found on file in the office of the Secretary of State. It was also stipulated that Mr. Evans should sell to the State ten additional acres of the tract, and the Board authorized its President, Hon. J. H. Rand, to take a bond from that gentleman in the sum of $2,500 for the purchase of ten acres contiguous to the University tract, at a cost not exceeding $150 an acre, conditional upon delivery of deed within two years from June 11, 1885, and subject to the approval of the Legislature of Nevada. [Page 5.]

THE UNIVERSITY TRACT.

A bill is pending in Congress to establish agricultural experimental stations at each of the State Universities endowed by the Agricultural College grant. It provides for an appropriation of $15,000 annually for each college, to be expended under the direction of the Commissioner of Agriculture, who is to appoint one instructor of Agriculture at each of said colleges, the Nevada State University being among the number. In this relation we recommend that the ten additional acres, which the Regents have bonded, be purchased from Mr. N. J. Evans, at the rate of $150 an acre. This would give the University tract an area of twenty acres, which is not too large for the ultimate use to which it would be put, once a Department of Agriculture is established. Land in and around Reno is rapidly enhancing in value, and in our opinion the purchase of ten additional acres would be of great advantage to the University of the future. The area of the University tract at Elko was 21 15-100 acres. In its new home the institution should be entitled to as ample grounds as those it occupied before it was removed. [Page 14.]

Since the foregoing report was submitted to the Legislature, the Act of Congress referred to passed both houses and received the approval of the President during the closing hours of the session. Respectfully, HENRY G. SHAW.

San Francisco, June 7, 1887.

A Case of Contempt.

The case of D. W. O'Connor vs. George Ulyatt was heard in the District Court this morning. According to the complaint, there was on the 28th of June, 1886, entered in the District Court a judgment, and decree in favor of the plaintiff and against Ulyatt, by which judgment said Ulyatt was forever enjoined and restrained, together with his agents, servants, attorneys and employees, from flowing or running, or allowing or permitting to flow or run, any waste, surplus or drainage water in the central drain ditch; that on the 30th and 31st days of May, 1887, and the 1st, 2d and 3d days of June, 1887, said Ulyatt willfully and intentionally, and in violation and contempt of said judgment and decree of the Court, and of said injunction, and against the will and consent of the affiant, did flow and run large quantities of waste, surplus and drainage water into said ditch, and upon and against the banks and sides thereof, thereby doing much damage. The affiant asks that the defendant be arrested for contempt and dealt with according to law.

The Reduction Works.

The reduction works are kept constantly going, and it is now certain that the capacity of the establishment will have to be increased or other works of that kind erected, if business continues to increase. They are now receiving ore from California and all portions of Nevada, and the returns have been so far entirely satisfactory. This will have a tendency to encourage mining where the ores are refractory, and thereby render it compulsory on the part of the company to make other additions to their plant. Lead ores in quantities are what the company would like to have, and even if they are of comparatively low grade they can be worked with profit to the producer.

RENO SCHOOL CENSUS.

The Report of Marshal Hunter Shows a Decided Increase in the Number of School Children Over That of a Year Ago.

The following is a report of the School Census Marshal of Reno District No. 10, Mr. B. E. Hunter, for the school year ending August 31, 1887: Number of boys between 6 and 18 years of age, 386; number of girls between 6 and 18 years of age, 390; total number of children between 6 and 18 years of age, 776; number of children under 6 years of age, 120; number of children between 18 and 21 years of age, 21; number of children between 4 and 6 years of age, 67; total number of children reported as attending public school, 510; total number of children reported as attending private school, 48; number of children between 6 and 18 years of age not attending any school, 160; number of children between 8 and 14 years of age attending public school, 347; number of children between 8 and 14 years of age attending private school, 18; number of children between 8 and 14 years of age not attending any school, 34; number of white children under 21 years of age, 923; number of negro children under 21 years of age, 7; number of Mongolian children under 21 years of age, 7; number of children under 21 years of age born in Nevada, 608; number of children under 21 years of age born in other States or Territories, 287; number of children under 21 years of age born in foreign countries, 47; total number of children under 21 years of age, 937.

The report shows an increase of children between 7 and 18 years of age of 171 over that of a year ago. This will probably necessitate the employment of two extra teachers the coming year, and an enlargement of one of the school houses, especially if the number continues to increase, which is said to be at present the case.

The Lawton Springs.

The hot springs in this country that contain the proper medicinal properties are rapidly becoming places of great resort for those in search of health, and will grow in popularity as time advances. The Lawton springs above Reno are pronounced by medical men to be of the finest order, containing all the essential properties that are beneficial to the skin, and the time will come when they will be a great resort for those who are able to patronize such places either for pleasure or health. The springs are admirably situated, the flow of water very strong and of fine temperature for bathing and can be so improved as to make them one of the greatest places of Summer resort on the coast. If some party or a combination of men who are possessed of some wealth were to purchase this valuable property and erect a fine hotel on the grounds and improve the springs as they should be improved, it would soon become a profitable investment and would receive its full share of public patronage. Such a resort would be of great benefit to our growing town and would do much towards advertising our superior advantages, and at the same time enrich those who conducted it.

The Governor's Predicament.

The Virginia City Committee on Invitation for the coming Fourth are very anxious to have Governor Stevenson honor that city with his presence on Independence Day, and our committee has also requested him to pass the day in Reno. Carson, it seems, is also going to celebrate, and of course will want the Executive to celebrate with its people. The Governor is energetic and willing to do all he can to satisfy the people, but he can't see how in the world he is to make his appearance in all the western Nevada towns at the same time. Reno, we believe, has the prior claim, and the Governor will most likely honor our town with his presence.

An Important Decision.

The United States Court decided at a session held in Utah a few days ago that the Railroad Company was put in possession of its lands by the act of Congress making the grant. As soon as their map was filed the courts held that they owned the land. Parties who have been using the lands claimed that it was public property until patents were issued, but the Court holds that the issuing of the patent was simply a clerical duty, and that the ownership depended on the Act of Congress and not on the patent. Acting upon this decision the company will make leases of their lands to sheep men who use them and prosecute trespassers.

BREVITIES.

Local and General News.

The water in the river is gradually falling.

Wells Drury is in Denver, Col., working on the Republican.

The stage travel between Carson, Genoa and Glenbrook is said to be increasing.

The people of Genoa are making extensive preparations for celebrating the Fourth.

According to the Report the price of beef has advanced in Virginia City and Carson.

An assay office has been established at Lovelock, with a Mr. Langer as assayer.

They have struck about 12 feet of good ore in the Wild Goose section of the Paradise Valley mine.

The Foundry mine at Tuscarora has been incorporated. The capital stock is $10,000, divided into 100,000 shares.

The Silver State learns from good authority that the Pittsburg mine, in Lewis District, has been sold to a London company for $300,000.

Quite a number of young folks, and old ones too, left on this morning's Virginia and Truckee express train to attend the school picnic at Bowers' Mansion.

Marie Suize, of Virginia City, has brought suit against Frankel & Co., in the U. S. Circuit Court at Carson, for the recovery of $25,000 for the fraudulent conversion of mining stock.

Lou. C. Hawk, a practical plasterer of Cincinnati, has located in Reno and is prepared to do all kinds of work in his line. Mr. Hawk will finish the walls in the Phillips building, and persons desiring plastering done will do well to see him before making contracts with other plasterers.

County Commissioners' Meeting.

The County Commissioners held a special meeting this afternoon at 3 o'clock, Chairman Hymers, W. P. McLaughlin, District Attorney Evans and Clerk Julien being present.

The District Attorney asked that the Commissioners consent to the extra expense of an assistant for the purpose of making a chemical analysis, or such action as he may see fit in regard to making a test for poison in the stomach of Alice Moore. The Board decided that it had no jurisdiction in the matter.

The matter of levying special licenses on the business houses of Reno was deferred until Thursday next.

It was ordered that the resignation of L. W. Wienberg as Road Supervisor of Huffaker's District be accepted. A. Lamb was appointed to fill the vacancy, with bonds at $500.

The Board was still in session at 3:45 P. M.

Repeated History.

All those who are familiar with the poetical history of Old Joe Bowers are glad to know that he was not forgotten, and that the indefatigable historian has followed him up and found him and "his Sal" comfortably located "down in Pike." Joe's was a sad history, but one that has been oft repeated. Men to-day are throwing boulders and working for their "Sal" just as hard as Joe did while she sits at the best window throwing fine, ripe kisses at some slick dude. Joe's sweetheart caught a butcher shop, but those who indulge in the duds-catching business to-day generally get one to whom beef is a ranger. Their principal diet is billiard chalk, cold slaw and sausage. The case they carry is their only support, and that's rather slim.

The University Grounds.

Hon. John M. Dorman stated in an interview that the option for ten additional acres of ground for the State University would be accepted by the Board of Regents, and that the money for that purpose is now on deposit in the bank. The bond for the property has expired, but every arrangement for the transfer of the property was satisfactorily completed before the expiration of the bond. At the next meeting of the Board the money will be paid over, the deed signed and the grounds increased to 20 acres.

Expect to Pay.

The Mohawk Railroad Company has levied an assessment of $10 a share on its capital stock. It expects to raise money to pay off all their labor liens and other claims. A large amount of stock is owned East, and if the assessment is paid there will be a new start made on the work before long, as the property is too valuable to lose.
